The Purpose of the Dunamis Institute

The purpose of the Dunamis Institute is to preserve the legacy of teaching on the person and work of the Holy Spirit as embodied in the Dunamis Project, and to impart it to this and to future generations. This stream of experiencing and understanding the Holy Spirit is especially embodied in:

- The writings of the theologians and biblical scholars John Calvin, R.A. Torrey, J. Rodman Williams and Gordon Fee.
- The teaching and practice of John Wimber, Charles Kraft and Tom White.
- The practical teaching of Archer Torrey, which has been embodied in the writing and practice of Ben Torrey, Peyton Johnson and Brad Long.

The Dunamis Institute fulfills this purpose by:

1. Creating venues in locations around the world and in cyberspace where God the Father may fulfill Acts 1:4-5,8; 2:17-18; and 2:38-39 so all Christians may be empowered witnesses to Jesus Christ.

2. Providing practical, biblical equipping for men and women, clergy and laity so they may receive the gifts and power of the Holy Spirit to be enabled to cooperate with the Holy Spirit in advancing the Kingdom of God.

3. Offering transferable equipping, applicable in diverse cultures and available to people at various educational and economic levels.

4. Growing spiritual leaders who embody the Kingdom of God for congregations, denominations, mission groups, and Christian institutions.

5. Equipping and commissioning intercessors and apostolic, prophetic and evangelistic pioneers for advancing the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

6. Equipping and supporting the members of the PRMI Dunamis Fellowship International (DFI) to provide the teaching and leadership for the fulfillment of PRMI's vision initiatives.
