We will be camping and spending all day outside. Thunderstorms and cool nights are common in the N.C. Mountains. Please come prepared for outdoor living.

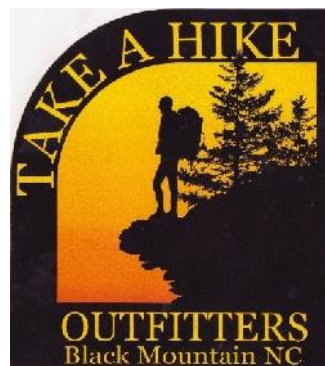

Tarps, tents, and eating utensils will be provided by the Community of the Cross.

PRMI is a faith based ministry that is supported solely by the gifts of the participants. There is no registration fee for Upward Challenge. However, an offering will be taken at the event to help cover the administrative and logistical costs and lay foundations for future events.

CELL PHONE POLICY

"Because we want you to get the most out of this week away, camp staff will collect each camper cell phones at the beginning of camp and will return them at the end. Cell phones will be kept safe by the camp director, and designated personnel will be taking photos throughout the week. If you need to contact your student during camp, you may call the camp phone number (828)669-0026. If you have any questions about this policy, please contact camp director Lydia Lockhart at lydialockhart@fuller.edu."

An Important Word About Wildlife:

A word about wildlife. We do have black bears here at the COC. Typically they do not bother anything. The exception is trash. Please do not leave any trash or food out. We have a bear safe dumpster in the lower parking lot. Do not leave any food, snacks not even a stick of gum in your cars, bears have been known to break the glass in cars to get food.

Please feel free to walk the trails and enjoy the Prayer Porch and Ascension Point, just always be aware of your surroundings we are in the woods, and we are not alone.

It is our hope that you will enjoy yourself while here and that the Holy Spirit will fill you to overflowing in preparation for the work He has already prepared for you to do.

Blessings,
The Staff of PRMI
